

Watercolor Workshop With Terri Caprio January 10, 2015

We are very excited to have member, Terri Caprio teaching this month! Terri has been teaching high school science for twenty-five years as well as having taught college science. She has been into art since she was young and has done porcelain painting for thirty years. Her porcelain painting has fostered her love for flowers as well as taught her color, form and layering in her art. Terri says, "Watercolor is the perfect medium for flowers because it flows to give you natural color transitions." Please join us for this wonderful workshop!
