

Sat., June 13th "Full Moon Cottage"

2-Day Seminar Oils with Michael Cheek June 13 & 14, 2020

Please join us as we welcome Michael Cheek to DAGSO for the first time! We are very excited to have him this year. Michael has spent a lot of time developing his own style after taking his first painting course. Now Michael's style and techniques can be easily learned especially by beginners. Michael has taught at national conventions and has been featured in national magazines such as; Paint Works, The Decorative Painters, Interactive Artist, Painting E-zine, Pixelated Palette, and most recently, Painting World Magazine. You can see more of Michael's work at:
www.palettecreationsbymichael.com

Sun., June 14th "Spring Garden"

Surface: Michael will be providing the canvases to paint on for both projects.

Paint: Michael will also be supplying the paint for each project.

Supplies to bring: All your normal oil painting supplies including a table top easel, soft rag, paper towels, 3 to 4 Q-tips, a small glass jar, palette paper and a palette knife (just in case).

Brushes: Artist Loft Flat Bristle (These come in a 12 pack, ranging from size #1 - #12. They can be purchased at Michael's Arts and Craft Stores!), A Bob Ross #2 Script Liner (or) one similar, A Bob Ross #3 Fan Blender (or) one similar. (NOTE): Please bring new or gently used brushes! It is hard to achieve the results with hard, worn out brushes! Also bring your favorite brushes you enjoy painting with! (Michael will also have some brushes for sale at the class.)
