

March Class Sign-Up Acrylics with Sandie Tieman Saturday, March 11, 2023

Please join us as we welcome Sandie Tieman to DAGSO for the first time. She will be teaching a great porch greeter designed by Renee Mullins of Plum Purdy. She has been a member of The Greater Cincinnati Decorative Artists for 40 years and is currently the President of their group. With much encouragement from fellow members, she submitted a project for their annual painting retreat many years ago, and from there began her love for teaching. She owned and operated the "Nearsighted Owl" where painting supplies, stencils and finished projects were sold as well as classes taught by local artists. She also taught classes in her home for many years. Presently, she is enjoying retirement and the freedom it has allowed her to do things she loves. Painting and teaching are definitely two of those things! It is so gratifying for her to see students pleased with what they have painted, and she truly enjoys seeing all of the talented ladies who have taken her classes over the years.
